

FutureNow Technologies Supplements its Workforce With Over 200 Additional Employees

FutureNow mobilizes a considerable number of resources in order to manage growing business needs. FutureNow Technologies (Pvt) Ltd. www.fnint.com, announced today that it has taken on over 200 additional resources in order to manage its day to day growing business needs. These additional resources have been mobilized in the Business Process Outsourcing, Software Development, Quality Assurance and Process Engineering divisions.

While companies are laying off employees due to the current economic uncertainty, FutureNow Technologies continues to steadily develop its human resource pool and hire the best. With the expansion, FutureNow hopes to leverage the pool of technical talent in Lahore, to build a workforce that will help enhance its competitive edge and maintain its lead in the industry.

"We realize that in good times there is a certain level of opportunity; however during economic downturns, there are even more opportunities for smart companies," said Mian Arif Ali, Director Operations of FutureNow Technologies (Pvt) Ltd.

"Having said that, we are moving forward very carefully. Corporate responsibility means that we honor and be careful about our commitments to our clients AND our employees. It is gratifying to see so many people being enthusiastic about growing their careers with us and actively participating in the long term development of the company as a whole."
